AN INDICATION CLEARLY GIVEN BY PRESIDENT

WILSON ISSUES A TIMELY NOTE

Deals With Our Future Relations
With Latin-American Peoples.

SEEKS CORDIAL CO-OPERATION

Declares He Can Have No Sympathy
With Those Who Strive to Usurp
Governmental Power to Advance
Their Own Personal Interests—Extends to All American Republics the Hand of Genuine Friendship.

Washington, March 12.—President Wilson has given the first indication of what are to be the foreign policies of his administration. He issued a statement dealing with the relations between the United States and countries of Latin America. He said:

"One of the chief objects of my administration will be to cultivate the friendship and deserve the confidence of our sister republics of Central and South America and to promote in every proper and honorable way the interests which are common to the peoples of the two continents. I earnestly desire the most cordial understanding and co-operation between the peoples and leaders of America, and therefore deem it my duty to make this brief statement."

"Co-operation is possible only when supported at every turn by the orderly processes of just government based upon law, not upon arbitrary or irregular force. We hold, as I am sure all thoughtful leaders of republican government everywhere hold, that just government rests always upon the consent of the governed, and there can be no freedom without order based upon law and upon the public conscience and approval."

"We shall look to make these principles the basis of mutual intercourse, respect and helpfulness between our sister republics and ourselves. We shall lend our influence of every kind to the realization of these principles in fact and practice, knowing that disorder, personal intrigue and defiance of constitutional rights weaken and discredit government and injure none so much as the people who are unfortunate enough to have their common life and their common affairs so tainted and disturbed. We can have no sympathy with those who seek to usurp the power of government, to advance their own political interests or ambition."

"We are the friends of peace, but we know that there can be no lasting or stable peace in such circumstances. As friends, therefore, we shall prefer those who act in the interest of peace and honor, who protect private rights and respect the restraints of constitutional provisions. Mutual respect seems to us the indispensable foundation of friendship between states, as between individuals."

"The United States has nothing to seek in Central America and South America except the lasting interests of the people of the two continents, the security of governments intended for the people, and for no special group or interest, and the development of personal and trade relationships between the two continents which shall redound to the profit and advantage of both and interfere with the rights and liberties of neither."

"From these principles may be read so much of the future policy of this government as it is necessary now to forecast; and in the spirit of these principles I may, I hope, be permitted with as much confidence as earnestness, to extend to the governments of all the republics of America the hand of genuine disinterested friendship and to pledge my own honor and the honor of my colleagues to every enterprise of peace and amity that a fortunate future may disclose."

BAD LOOK TO THE BOOKS

STATE PROBERS SAY BLOTS HIDE FIGURES

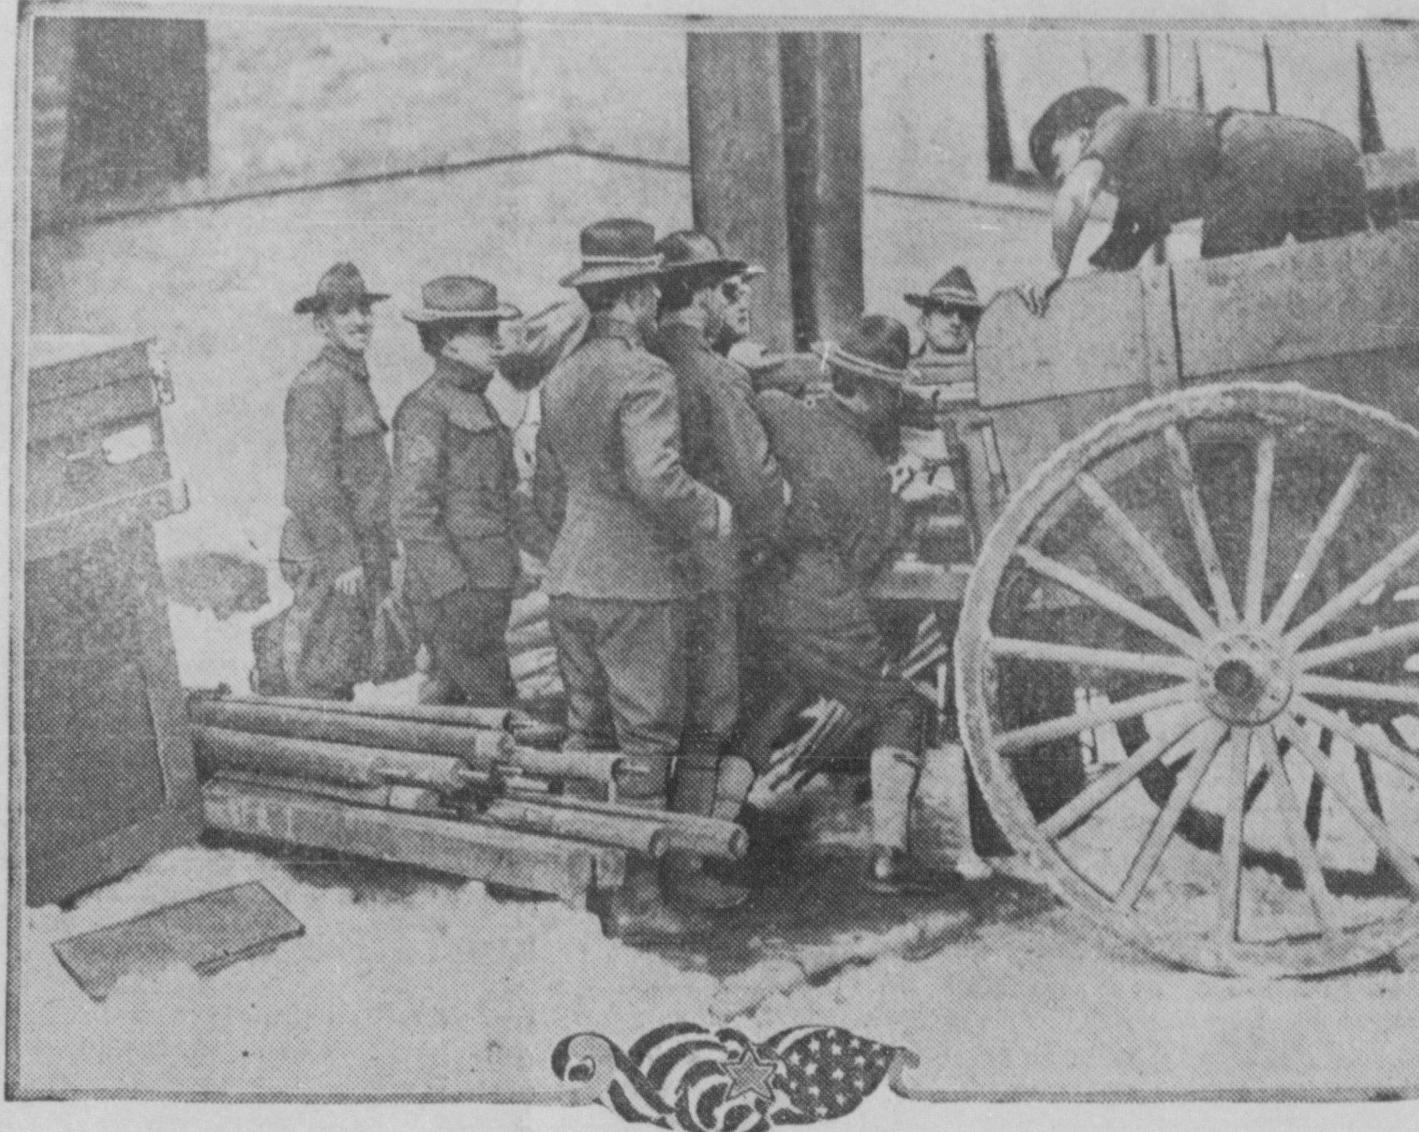

Other Discoveries Made In Books Of Defunct Trust Company.

Columbus, O., March 12.—Badly blotted pages, more erased entries and discrepancies running into the tens of thousands of dollars between the treasurer's check register and the teller proof book of the defunct Columbus Savings and Trust company, figured largely in the testimony taken before Judge George B. Okey as referee in the proceedings, whereby the state seeks to recover interest claimed due on funds illegally deposited by state treasurers.

It became known that what is known as check register A, which might implicate another set of men than may be involved through register B, upon which examination to

King's Carnival at Nice, Italy. A Big, Jolly Riot of Nonsense

Photos by American Press Association.

IN Europe they know a whole lot more about real carnivals than we do in America. It's true, we have our own Mardi Gras in the south, our baby parade in the east, and our flower procession in the west, but we are too busy making dollars and busting trusts to put on the mask of frivolity the way they do abroad. Take the recent king's carnival at Nice, Italy, for example. The pictures herewith displayed show what donning the "mask of frivolity" really means. The parade was freaky enough to give you a dozen nightmares per sleep. It was a riot of oddity, a kaleidoscope of nonsense. Talk about "big heads," observe the upper picture. Naturally, when you have a "big head" you feel like walking on crutches. This is a real crutch club. Then there were the musicians, as shown below. My, what a jolly jumble of jollification they were! What a walking menagerie of discord! Yes, they know how to carnivalize across the big pond.

A Nice Start-off To Married Happiness

Holland Tobacco Man Arrives In New York, a Brideless Bridegroom.

New York, March 12.—Among the passengers on the steamer Rotterdam from England was Julius Worz, a once jolly tobacco man of Sciedam, Holland, but now appearing in the sorrowful role of brideless bride Saturday.

groom. Feb. 28 he married Henrietta Erhardt of Haarlem, and the next day they were to sail on their honeymoon bound for Cincinnati, where Julius has a brother in the tobacco business.

But somehow Henrietta didn't sail. Julius remembers particularly they were both on the Rotterdam when the ship left, but at Boulogne, where the Rotterdam stopped for a few hours, the honeymoon came to a sudden end. They went ashore to do some shopping and became separated. Julius got to the ship just before the whistle blew. He took it for granted that Henrietta was aboard, but alas, when they were under way and he had searched the big liner stern to stem he realized the terrible truth. He sent wireless messages back, but could get no reply. On his arrival a cable message was waiting for him and he found that his bride was on the Campania and would arrive here Saturday.

EVEN THE SOLID OLD GERMANS RATTLED

GERMANY HAS CASE OF FINANCIAL NERVES

Kaiser's Armament Program Re-acting on All Business.

Berlin, March 12.—Germany is developing a bad case of financial nerves. The outward symptoms are everywhere, and are seen in deep uneasiness over the international situation and suspense and uncertainty felt as to the future. This, together with the tightness of money and the scarcity of gold, are the chief features of an uneasy situation.

The warlike article in the Cologne Gazette declaring that war with France is a certainty, is regarded as unskillful politics and is much deplored in financial circles. The combination of the effect of this feeling, together with press statements that the international situation appears less hopeful, has again brought a panic feeling. All stocks have a downward trend.

Inquiry among banking, industrial, mercantile and business circles elicited the information that the situation is causing much worry. The armament program of the government, calling for an initial expenditure of new military extensions of $350,000,000, is reacting seriously on all business.

Will They Ever Stop

Washington, March 12.—Official tests of the Friedmann cultures for the cure of tuberculosis were begun at the government hygienic laboratory by Surgeon John F. Anderson of the public health service. Dr. Anderson returned from New York, where he received the cultures from Dr. Friedmann just prior to the latter's departure for Montreal. The government medical authorities apparently were disappointed that Dr. Friedmann did not give Dr. Anderson the formula for the cultures, as had been previously agreed on in correspondence between the German physician and Surgeon General Blue.

Betterment of Rural Life Discussed at Ohio Congress.

FIRST SESSION HELD TODAY

Interest of the Large Audience Shown In Attention Given the Orators at the Opening Meeting, Over Which Supreme Judge Donahue Presides. Governor Cox to Make the Principal Address at the Second Session.

Columbus, O., March 12.—The Rural Life and Good Roads Congress, called by Governor Cox, opened its session this afternoon at Memorial hall in this city under auspicious circumstances. There was a good attendance, and the interest of the audience was manifested in the deep attention accorded each speaker. The hall is handsomely decorated w/ a profusion of American flags and bunting.

Judge Maurice H. Donahue of the supreme court of Ohio served as chairman, and invocation was asked by Rev. H. D. Sterrett, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, this city. The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. George J. Karb, mayor of Columbus, and following this came a short talk from Governor James M. Cox, explaining the purposes of the congress and the reasons for which it was called.

Following this was the appointment of a committee on resolutions by Mr. D. R. Hanna of Cleveland, chairman of the committee in charge of the congress. The committee will submit its report at the close of the final session Thursday, and this report will constitute one of the important features of the congress. Out of it will likely come the nucleus of a national organization devoted to the interests of both rural life and good roads work.

The program this afternoon included addresses by Mrs. Martha P. Falconer, superintendent of the Pennsylvania Training School for Girls, on "The Neglected Child in Rural Communities;" W. H. Allen of the Training School for Public Service, Municipal Research Bureau, New York, on "Education in the Rural Schools;" Miss Jessie Field, New York, secretary of the rural department of the National Y. W. C. A., on "A Square Deal for Country Boys and Girls;" Miss Mary M. Vaux, owner of the Harrington General Store.

GUN IS DISCHARGED AND BULLET ENTERS
BRAIN OF SMALL BOY

Frank Rowan, 13-year-old Son of Mrs. J. E. Rowan, Mortally Wounded This Morning.

RAPIDLY GROWING WEAKER WITH BULLET IN HIS BRAIN

Lay Unconscious in Room at His Home on South Fayette Street From 8 O'clock In Morning Until Noon, When Sister, Returning From Work Finds Him. Doctors Have No Hope for His Recovery.

While examining a .32 caliber revolver at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. E. Rowan, on South Fayette street, Wednesday morning, Frank Rowan, aged 13 years was shot through the brain when the revolver exploded, the leaden ball penetrating the skull just over the right eye and ranging backward, inflicting a wound which is expected to cause his death at any moment.

The lad was found lying in an unconscious condition on the floor of an upstairs room about 11:45, when his sister, Miss Lulu, who teacher in the Sunnyside school, returned home for dinner, and all indications are that the accident occurred about 8 o'clock in the morning and he had been lying unconscious since that time.

When found he was stretched upon the floor with blood oozing from the wound. The gun was within a few feet of him, and it was evident that the shooting had been purely accidental.

A physician was summoned at once and the lad removed to the Hodson hospital. He rallied somewhat under restoratives administered when the physician first arrived, and spoke incoherently, but said the shooting was accidental.

At the Hodson hospital he is rapidly growing weaker, and his death is expected at any moment. An examination disclosed that the ball had penetrated deep into the brain and remained embedded near the base of the brain. Pieces of the brain oozed from the wound, and the physicians have no hope whatever for his recovery.

The lad lingered at home alone after his sisters had left, and he was expected at school at the usual hour, but failed to appear, and it is supposed that after his sisters left the premises he had secured the gun and while examining it, the gun was discharged. The fact that he did not attend school is taken as evidence that accident must have occurred before the time for him to leave for school.

Powder marks covered his forehead and side of his face, indicating that the muzzle of the gun must have been near his face when the weapon was discharged.

Mrs. Rowan, the lad's mother, was in Greenfield at the time, visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Smith, and word was telephoned to her. She and Mrs. Smith arrived on the afternoon train and hurried at once to the hospital to see the wounded lad who is rapidly growing weaker.

Veteran Engineer Stricken in Cab

George Ball, for 38 years an employee of the B. & O. S. W. railroad, was stricken with paralysis while in his cab at Hamden Tuesday morning.

He was just in the act of starting his engine on a trip to Portsmouth when the affliction came upon him. He entered employment with the road in 1900, and has been a passenger engineer since 1905.

He was found he was stretched upon the floor with blood oozing from the wound. The gun was within a few feet of him, and it was evident that the shooting had been purely accidental.

A physician was summoned at once and the lad removed to the Hodson hospital. He rallied somewhat under restoratives administered when the physician first arrived, and spoke incoherently, but said the shooting was accidental.

CLUB NEWS

An important business meeting with the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter in the chair, preceded the regular program of Tuesday night's Browning club session.

Eight new members were voted in, five active, Mesdames Pope Gregg, Jess Blackmer, J. H. Hicks, Sever and Bowyer, and three as associate, Mesdames M. E. Hitchcock, McKee and Lewis. The names of Mrs. Feagins and Mrs. Toops were placed on the waiting list.

Miss Channel made an interesting report of the charitable work she is doing among the pupils of her school, on behalf of the Browning club. Mrs. Carpenter, as president, had, at her own expense, started an experiment at the East End school which led the Browning club to donate a sum to Miss Channel, as principal of East End to continue the work. The experiment had been serving of a light breakfast to 15 poor children of the school. There had been indications that these children came to school breakfastless, and Miss Channel cheerfully comes to school earlier in the mornings and prepares a dainty breakfast, for which the Browning club provides the funds. It is an excellent form of practical charity.

The Browning women are much interested in bills now up before the legislature, especially in the bill which requires a certificate of health for marriage; the Prison Reform bill, Widows' Pension bill, etc. A letter was received bringing these bills before the club and upon motion, it was decided to send a letter to Hon. C. A. Reid, urging his special attention and influence in the passage of these bills.

Mrs. Morna Blessing presided during the program presented by the Art department.

Mrs. Lydia Brown presented a paper on "Art Notes," which embodied much that was interesting as well as generous in giving instruction.

The writer touched upon music, painting, the drama and sculpture, bringing out special features and noted artists in connection with each.

A beautiful piano solo by Miss Seneth Kellough was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Clarence Estey was an out-of-town guest.

The Cecilians enjoyed a delightful program at the home of Mrs. Sina L. Murray Tuesday afternoon, the composer for the day, Beethoven.

Mrs. Margaret McClure Stitt was the leader and gave a most entertaining and original synopsis of Beethoven's life. The heredity and environment of the composer's life were treated in connection with his genius, suggesting a line of thought out of the ordinary. Beethoven's relation to the musical world and the eras of his creative work were also emphasized.

The musical numbers were very beautiful and artistically given by club artists, Mrs. Lillie Davis sang "Adelaide"; Miss Edith H. Gardner sang "Mignon's Song"; Mrs. Eva T. Craig played two movements of the "Sonata Pathétique", and Mrs. Sina L. Murray two movements of the "Moonlight Sonata."

Miss Minnie Light gave a reading on "Musical Settlement Work of New York and Boston."

The Illinois Vice Probe

The vice probe inaugurated by the Illinois State Senate into the condition of the working girls of the larger cities of the state, especially Chicago, promises to develop much of good in the way of reforming present conditions.

This investigation, although a long time neglected by the good people of the nation seems to have back of it great power, determination and ability.

The condition surrounding the clerks and shop girls of the larger cities has been recognized by thinking people for years, to be the greatest whirlpool of vice in all our social system. Conditions bad in almost every large city have been recognized, generally, and worse in Chicago than elsewhere.

Thousands of girls are lured from the small towns and the rural district by the whirl and glare of the great city. An irresistible impulse seizes upon them to leave the quiet safe surroundings of the home and strike out into the great roaring gulf of the city to make their own way in the world.

The inexperienced young girls have no idea of the cost of living in a great city—have no conception of the merciless commercialism which rules. They have never received or required much money to maintain themselves in the quiet villages and the peaceful country side and the weekly salary offered them by the big city merchants so much in excess of their modest requirements, seems a fortune.

Once launched in the mad current of the city there is no turning back and too soon they learn that the wage offered is but a fraction of the sum necessary to keep soul and body together.

The answer is the same in thousands and thousands of cases.

Where human greed refuses to heed the awful tragedy of it all it is high time that the strong arm of organized society be stretched forth to hold back the men who value neither human life nor human souls.

What is necessary for a girl to live on in the city seems to be the main question now with the investigators and when that question is answered it is likely that wolfish employers of young girls will face a legal requirement in the shape of a minimum wage scale.

No man dare take the stand and excuse his course on the ground that his business does not justify paying his young girl employees a living wage.

There is no excuse for a man to continue in such a business. To do so is but to traffic in souls.

The universal hope is that the good work begun in Illinois will be pushed to the only proper conclusion and that the example set will be the guiding star for other large cities.

We Need Those Captains of Industry Who Are Honest

By THOMAS A. EDISON, the Famous Inventor

All know that wealth is an illusion. I don't mean by this that money—enough of it for comfort—is an illusion. But great WEALTH is. What can Rockefeller do with his money?

Do you think he is as happy as I am? Invested in industries, it belongs to the people. And what is the joy of a tin box full of photo-plate certificates showing a lot of figures? You can't take them with you when you die, and when you come to die you find you have been CHASING A FOOLISH ILLUSION AND LOST TRUE HAPPINESS ON THE WAY.

ON THE OTHER HAND, WE NEED THE CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY. IT IS A GOOD THING FOR THE HUMAN RACE THAT THEY HAVE THIS INCENTIVE; THIS ILLUSION THAT THEY HUG. FOR THESE GREAT MINDS ARE ALL WORKING FOR THE CAUSE OF HUMAN PROGRESS, HOWEVER ROUNDABOUT IT MAY SEEM TO US NOW, AND ALL THE WHILE THEY THINK THEY ARE WORKING FOR SOMETHING THEY WANT AND COULDN'T GET ANY FUN OUT OF IF THEY HAD IT.

There isn't any cause for alarm in that direction if we only WATCH THE CROOKS. Let a man make all he can honestly and he will DO MORE FOR US THAN FOR HIMSELF. I agree with Governor Wilson on that, but I don't see how he is going to codify this principle and make it the law of the land.

This must be done by EDUCATION, through the schools and the newspapers. The newspapers are doing their share, but OUR SCHOOLS ARE NOT. There is too much theory in our schools—too much old fashioned, impractical stuff. Academic, I believe they call it. Analyze it down and EDUCATION IS KEEPING A LONG WAY BEHIND THE TIMES.

Poetry For Today

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

THE ORDINARY MAN.

He's an ordinary person
You can see on any day,
Who treads the path of life in just
An ordinary way:
An unobtrusive unit
In an ordinary town,
Who's labeled at the office
As a Smith, perhaps, or Brown.

But follow him one evening,
As an undiscovered guest,
To a small suburban villa
That the fellow calls his "nest."
Then comes a metamorphosis—
Explain it if you can—
But Smith (or Brown) becomes a most Extraordinary man.

A little king whose presence makes
A little kingdom glad;
Was ever there, to those concerned,
A greater man than "Dad?"
So ye who hitherto despised
Proceed to make amends,
For 'tis on people such as this
That every world depends.

Mausoleum for Washington C. H.

The Abode Of The Dead

An Edifice of Enduring Beauty

*If a Mansion in Heaven for the Soul,
Why Not a Palace
On Earth For The Body?*

HIS new Community Mausoleum will be constructed entirely of stone, bronze, marble, glass, concrete and iron, so as to make it practically indestructible by the elements.

The foundation will be built of steel and concrete as follows:

Seven trenches will be filled to the ground level, after which a bed of concrete 5 inches in thickness will be laid over the entire ground surface. On top of this concrete will be placed two tiers of steel three-fourths inch in diameter, and on top of this 5 inches more of concrete, giving it a combined total thickness on a main foundation table of 12 inches. The crypts or little rooms for the bodies will be separated from the foundation and from the exterior wall by an air space, so that it makes a building within a building.

Doors will be of bronze, while the interior of the building will be finished complete in solid marble and ceiling decorated in oil paintings.

The roof will be constructed of steel, asphalt and roofing tile.

A large number of glass admit light to the interior of the structure, so that the beauty of the interior is brought out very impressively upon the entrance to the building.

AN ENDOWMENT FUND

is placed with Washington Cemetery Association and is invested in trust funds, so that the interest provides for the maintenance of the building for all time. Absolutely no expense to compartment owners.

A Perfect System of Sanitation and Ventilation is arranged for, providing a resting place for the body which the ravages of time and the elements can not decay, and where the beloved human form may be preserved.

The number of compartments in this Community Mausoleum is strictly limited and only those who subscribe for space prior to its erection will be able to secure for themselves and families the advantages which it offers.

The cost of space in this beautiful building is within the reach of everyone, and the advantages are so many and so important that even a private Mausoleum costing thousands of dollars is less desirable in comparison.

This building is absolutely free of taxation. Cemetery property is NOT TAXABLE.

FORERUNNER OF THE BLOCK SYSTEM HAS BEEN INSTALLED HERE

Telephones Installed at Every Passing Siding on Pennsylvania Through This City, and Block System Will Be in Full Force Within Next Few Weeks. Four Box Phones in Local Yards.

The forerunner of the block system for handling trains on the Pennsylvania railroad has been installed through this city, and within the next month or two the system will be used entirely in the handling of all trains, lessening the danger of wrecks and insuring far greater safety than under the old system.

Telephones have already been installed at all passing sidings, including four of the phones in the yards in this city, so that a train crew may unlock the telephone box and communicate instantly with the operator at the local station, ascertaining what instructions are, and keeping in close touch with what is going on in general.

Two main wires have been strung over this division of the road, one of the wires is for telephones and the other for telegraph in conducting the block system, and Washington is the only "cut in" point between Lancaster and Morrow.

In addition to the telephones in-

Freight Wreck Ties Up Road

A freight wreck on the B. & O. S. W. at Madisonville during Tuesday night, made it necessary to detour several passenger trains from Cincinnati to Loveland over the Pennsylvania railroad.

A brake bar fell under the trucks of the freight while the train was passing over a small bridge, with the result that the train was wrecked in such a manner as to tie up both tracks until late Wednesday morning.

stalled in the local yards, others at Seiden, Olympia and Johnson's will offer means of communication with the local office, and will be of great convenience.

When the block system is placed in working order all points east of Lancaster will be in five mile blocks, while west of Lancaster ten-mile blocks will probably be established.

To distinguish the difference between the local telephones and the company's telephones at the local office, and the east and west calls, the west line has a "cow bell ring" and the east a "sleigh bell ring," so that in the midst of noise and confusion it is easy to distinguish the difference when the phone bells ring.

A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA

It is too often the fatal sequence. La Grippe coughs hang on, weaken the system, and lower the vital resistance. R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Barnegat, N. J. says: "I was troubled with a severe La Grippe cough and was completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing. Before I had taken one half of a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, the coughing spells had entirely ceased.

I wish to say it can't be beat. All others are imitations." Blackmer & Tarnary. Adv

James H. Kennedy Lands New Holland Postoffice Plum

Congressman J. D. Post, following the recommendation of the County Democratic Central Committee of Pickaway county, announced that he would name James H. Kennedy as the postmaster at New Holland.

There were several aspirants for the position which is regarded as one of the plums of the district, but all fell down when it came to securing the backing of the Central Committee. Mr. Post has insisted that the controlling committee of the county take some action in references to the candidates for appointment to federal postoffices and the committee's action carries great weight with the congressman in making the selection, although he will not be bound absolutely by the committee's action.

Mr. Post also announced that he had named Chas. C. Allison for the postmastership at Ashville, Pickaway county.

In the case of the two appointments just made the time of the present postmasters' has expired and the offices are immediately available to the lucky men. Mr. Allison was also recommended by the committee.

The term of the present postmaster at London has also expired and there is a lively scramble on there for the job.

T. J. Miranda, who is a candidate for the New Carlisle postoffice and James Minshall, a new candidate for London postoffice were among Mr. Post's many visitors today.

Nephew Proved Common Thief

James Thacker, living a few miles east of Sabina, is minus over $300 as the result of entertaining his nephew a few days ago.

The young man dropped in at the Thacker home, introduced himself as the son of Mr. Thacker's brother, which was true enough. The young man was urged to stay a while, and accepted the invitation to do so.

Mr. Thacker had occasion to be gone part of the day following the young man's appearance, and when he returned the nephew had flown and with him over $300 in cash, besides other valuables. The man communicated with his brother and learned that his nephew was the black sheep of the family, and had stolen from a number of other relatives.

So far the fellow has not been apprehended, but it is understood there is a warrant out for his apprehension.

Word has been received that no more patients will be taken at the Ohio Home for Epileptics at Gallipolis until additional buildings have been erected.

At the present time the population of the Ohio Home for Epileptics is 1484 or 284 more than the comfortable capacity of the buildings, and an appropriation of $210,000 has been asked of the legislature for use in the erection of additional buildings.

Funeral Of Frances McMillian

Rev. Frederick E. Ross, of Grace church, conducted a simple funeral service over the remains of Mr. Frances McMillian at the home of his niece, Mrs. T. M. Saxton, Tuesday afternoon.

The members of R. B. Hayes' Post, of which Mr. McMillian had been a member, acted as escort to the cemetery and conducted the G. A. R. burial service at the grave. Each old soldier dropped a spring of green into the open grave and there was a long spray from the G. A. R.

DOCTOR FORMERLY FROM THIS COUNTY VISITS DR. FRIEDMANN

Dr. B. R. Kirkendall Interviews Noted German, Who Is Now Attracting Attention of the Entire Civilized World.

New York indefinitely. Later he modified this to the extent of saying he would receive any proposition that might be sent him through the mails. At the time of the interview and since then the German scientist has denied himself to practically all callers.

He is plainly disconcerted and annoyed at the attitude of the New York doctors, many of whom profess to view his work askance. In the treatments he gave at the People's Hospital they stated that he did not manifest ordinary skill or dexterity with the hypodermic syringe, with which the patient is inoculated with the specially prepared virus. The New York medical fraternity also is displeased at the newspaper notoriety accorded the visitor.

Dr. Kirkendall found Dr. Friedmann inclined to be reticent. He was told that the German savant hopes to have his serum ready for general use in the near future, but declined to give any adequate idea of when the time would be. Although nervous, Dr. Kirkendall says that the German is far from the nervous wreck that he has been pictured. He speaks little English, and the bulk of the conversation was carried on by means of an interpreter. He seems to be about 45 years of age, is nice looking and well dressed.

Dr. Kirkendall gives it as his opinion that at present it is altogether useless for patients suffering from tuberculosis to go to New York in the hope of receiving treatment from Dr. Friedmann.

Line after line, Edward C. Genee, expert accountant of the firm of Ernst & Ernst, read off checks entered on the treasurer's books, produced in evidence, for sums of $100 and smaller amounts, which were drawn originally for figures ranging from $7,000 to $75,000. The entries had been changed, he said.

An especially interesting feature of the session was the appearance of "The Corn Boys" of Ohio. Eighty of them arrived from Van Wert county at 12 o'clock today on a special car and were met at the station by a committee and band. From there they were escorted to the capitol, and later acted as an escort to Governor Cox. In the evening a luncheon will be given them at the Ohio club.

This evening's session begins at 8 o'clock. Lieutenant Governor Nichols is to act as chairman. The program includes an extended address on "Rural Life and Civilization" by Governor James M. Cox.

Cetone Must Go to Prison.

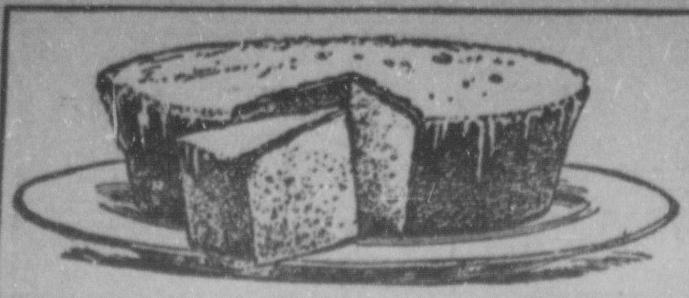

Columbus, O., March 12.—The supreme court held former State Senator George K. Cetone of Dayton guilty of legislative bribery. Cetone must now go to the pen and serve the three-year sentence imposed upon him by the lower courts. Cetone was charged with accepting a bribe of $200 to influence his vote on the Cetone-Whittemore fire insurance bill. His mother is reported seriously ill.

Urge Employment of Convicts.

Columbus, O., March 12.—According to Secretary H. H. Shirer of the state board of charities considerable money can be saved by the state in the employment of convicts on the erection of new state buildings. He has received considerable data from other states, and declares that if a new penitentiary is decided upon, a saving of 30 to 40 per cent can be had by the employment of convict labor.

PROGRESS IS MADE TOWARD REVOCATION TRACTION FRANCHISE MEASURE PASSES SECOND READING

House Favors Bill Annulling the Fifty-Year Franchise Grant.

BIGELOW LEADS THE FIGHT

Hints at Corruption in Connection
With the Passage of the Rogers Bill
Granting Franchise to the Cincinnati
Traction Company — Senate
Passes the Proposition Extending
Terms of County Officials.

Columbus, O., March 12.—The house by 75 to 45 voted second reading approval of Herbert S. Bigelow's bill annulling the 50-year franchise of the Cincinnati Traction company.

The favorable vote was helped by the prediction of the author of the bill that if passed it would not be put into operation, as during the 90 days to intervene between passage and going into effect the bill would be used as a club to compel surrender by the company of its franchise and acceptance of such terms as the city administration should dictate.

The bill itself substitutes for the revoked franchise an indeterminate franchise to last until the city should buy the company's property, the company to continue operation under regulation of service and fares by the city by means of a subdepartment which would have all the power of a local utilities commission.

The legal argument of the proponents of the bill was that the power to recall was a prior condition of all grants since 1851 and, therefore, revocation was not breaking a contract or confiscation.

That it was confiscation and breaking of faith which would be noticed to the world that Ohio would not respect public contracts, was asserted by Mr. Cappelle of Cincinnati and other speakers.

Mr. Bigelow charged that Representative Rogers of Cincinnati, author of the 50-year enabling act, who was not in the coal business, was paid $5,000 to $6,000 a year by the traction company to furnish it coal, but never supplied one pound. He also charged that money was sent from Cleveland to buy votes for the Rogers bill.

Term Extension Bill Passed.

County officials only lack favorable action by the house and the signature of Governor Cox to have their terms of office increased anywhere from eight to 14 months. The bill by Senator Bernstein of Cleveland providing for the extension of terms was passed by the senate by a vote of 20 to 8. All the Republican members excepting Gallagher of Madison voted against the bill. Senator Bernstein said his measure was not intended to benefit any official, but was for the purpose of making the terms begin as soon as possible after election. Auditors and treasurers have their terms of office extended 14 months, to expire on the first Monday in March, 1917. Commissioners, recorder, surveyor and clerk are extended in office eight months. Their terms will expire on the first Monday in January, 1917. The bill affects only those officials who were elected last fall. It does not affect the prosecuting attorney, sheriff and coroner, as their terms begin in January.

The house killed the Chapman bill to create the position of state plumbing inspector, and the Nye bill requiring approval by the state workshop Inspector of all public buildings to be erected outside of cities which have building inspectors.

An Indication Carefully Given by President

Mexico is now squarely up to the Wilson administration, inasmuch as the United States has been asked to receive Senor Babasa, who has been nominated for the post of ambassador at Washington. Consent to receive Senor Babasa as ambassador would of course be equivalent to recognition of the new government. Secretary of State Bryan refused to discuss the question, just as he also declined to discuss any matter of foreign relations. The impression is that recognition will be deferred until there has been an election in Mexico. No changes will be made in the disposition of any troops now on the Mexican border.

WHAT FIREMEN SAY

Responsibility Increasing and Cost of Living Out of Bounds.

New York, March 12.—More locomotive firemen were called on to give testimony at the hearing of the demands of the firemen of the eastern roads, before the three arbitrators, under the Erdman act, the testimony of the witnesses being given to show that their responsibility was increasing and the cost of living also jumping, without a proportionate increase in wages. According to some of the firemen who gave testimony, it was one thing to qualify for promotion as an engineer and another thing to be promoted. One fireman said that while he could run an engine, it would be from eight to 16 years before he could be an engineer, and there were 170 others ahead of him on his district.

WHO'S THE BOSS?

Tammany Chief Insists That Governor Sulzer Appoint His Man.

Albany, N. Y., March 12.—Everything points to a complete break between Governor Sulzer and Tammany Leader Murphy and the Democratic state organization. If the break comes it will be over the appointment of James E. Gaffney, one of the contractors for the Pennsylvania terminal, part owner of the Boston baseball club and associate of Mr. Murphy, as state highway commissioner. Governor Sulzer is not going to appoint Mr. Gaffney if he holds to his present purpose. Mr. Murphy is understood to have insisted that he wanted Mr. Gaffney as head of the reorganized highways commission.

INSISTS WILSON AGREED

Governor Dunne Reiterates President Favored Lewis-Sherman Deal.

Chicago, March 12.—The question of veracity between Governor Edward F. Dunne and the White House in regard to a conference between the state executive and President Wilson Wednesday night concerning the election of United States senators by the Illinois legislature was raised again when Governor Dunne returned from New York.

The governor reiterated his statement that President Wilson agreed Wednesday with his plan for the election of James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat, for the long term senatorship, and Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, for the short term.

The following morning the statement came from the White House, supposedly officially, that Governor Dunne was not warranted in committing the president in regard to the Illinois senatorial situation.

GOVERNOR BLEASE FIGHTING THE COURTS.

Columbia, S. C., March 12.—After his negro chauffeur was fined $15.75 for speeding, Governor Cole L. Please granted a pardon to the negro and directed the mayor and chief of police to return the fine. This was not done, the police official refusing to honor pardons from the governor until the city attorney has ruled on the case. This is the second time in four days that the governor's chauffeur has been fined for speeding, pardoned by the governor and the pardon disregarded by the chief of police. Governor Blease is quoted as saying that he will place the city under martial law if the "persecution" of the negro chauffeur continues.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.

Overworked, run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Miss Richter's experience. She says: "Last winter I was completely run down and felt fagged out all the time, was nervous and had indigestion.

"One of my friends advised me to take Vinol and it has done me great good. The tired, worn-out feeling is all gone and I am strong, vigorous and well. The stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have perfect digestion. I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol."

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength-creating effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not give back your money, Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H.
